The year 1935 must have been a particularly good one for hoaxers. In that year five American millionaires paid an average of $300,000 for the Mona Lisa, which continued to hang in the Louvre.

Largest County Fair Set To Open Gates Tomorrow

Gates swing wide tomorrow morning at the Pomona fairgrounds to herald the opening of the 36th annual edition of the Los Angeles County Fair, largest and most colorful in the nation.

A record million-and-a-quarter visitors are expected during the 17-day run of the exposition's 1963 season ending Sunday, Sept. 29.

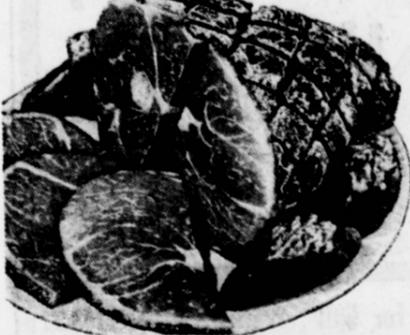

Newly air-conditioned monorail cars circle the heart of the exposition taking passengers on a gliding scenic tour over the grounds.

Latest feature added to the popular Story Book Farm with its old-fashioned farmhouse, barnyard and array of familiar nursery rhyme animals, is the "Cuddle Corral" full of tame animals tiny-tots can pet.

Twenty major divisions of the fair—each an exhibition in itself—present more than 40,000 exhibits spread throughout the $25 million 450-acre exposition park.

Nearly 100 California counties, communities and organizations display resources in the Palace of Agriculture. A big livestock show has the finest of western flocks and herds.
